

August 16, 2019

To,
Sri Satya Nath Sarma,
Member Secretary,
Assam State Legal Services Authority,
Guwahati, Assam

Subject : Announcing the first edition of 'Jatindra Mohan Chaudhuri' Lecture Series to be organised by Studio Nilima: Collaborative Network for Research and Capacity Building (hereinafter referred to as Studio Nilima)

Respected Sir,

Studio Nilima is a registered Society under the Societies Registration Act, XXI of 1860 based in Guwahati, Assam working in the areas of law, society and governance. The organization draws its strength from its Governing Council, which comprises of Justice (Retd) Dhiresh Narayan Choudhury, Former Judge, Gauhati High Court, Justice (Retd.) Brojendra Prasad Katakey, Former Judge, Gauhati High Court, Mr. Nilay Dutta, Advocate General, Government of Arunachal Pradesh and Senior Advocate, Gauhati High Court, Ms. Millie Hazarika, Senior Advocate, Gauhati High Court, Ms. Mahfuza Rahman, Academic, Former Head of Department (Geography), Cotton College, Gauhati, Mr. Apurba Sharma, Chairman (Executive Committee) Bar Council of India and Mr. Pradip Bhuyan, Industrialist, Guwahati.

In pursuance of the agreement between the Assam State Legal Services Authority and Studio Nilima vide letter dated 07.02.19 to organise interactive sessions for Amicus Curiae/LAC of Assam, we are pleased to announce a series of Criminal Law Lectures titled 'Jatindra Mohan Chaudhuri Lecture Series' on September 28, 2019 and October 26, 2019. Hon'ble Mr. Justice (Retd.) I. A. Ansari, Chairperson, Punjab State Human Rights Commission and Mr. Siddharth Luthra, Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of India have agreed graciously to be the Resource Persons and address the Advocates.

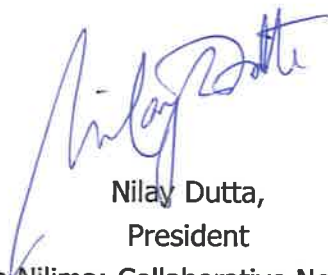

Handwritten notes:
A.2019/08.16/2019
A.2019/08.16/2019
Have up before
16/8/2019

We are hopeful that this initiative will make valuable contributions in effecting change within the legal services eco-system and inspire and motivate our Advocates to serve society with renewed vigour and enthusiasm. We would request that this initiative may be kindly considered and supported by your good offices in mobilising the Advocates to attend the lecture series. We request you to share attached copy of invite with all Amicus Curiae and LACs respectively. We are grateful for your continued support and shared commitment in striving towards a rights based, collaborative and efficient legal services community.

We hereby request you or any member on your behalf to be kindly present during the Programme.

Thanking You,

Nilay Dutta,
President
Studio Nilima: Collaborative Network for
Research and Capacity Building

PRESIDENT
STUDIO NILIMA

Encl: 1. Invite of the Lecture Series.

Copy to:-

1. The Registrar (Vigilance), Gauhati High Court

Nilay Dutta,
President
Studio Nilima: Collaborative Network for Research and Capacity Building

ANNOUNCING
Jatindra Mohan Chaudhuri Lecture Series

COLLABORATIVE NETWORK FOR
RESEARCH AND CAPACITY BUILDING

BY

Justice (R) I.A. Ansari,
Chairperson,
Punjab State Human Rights Commission

ON

Reading, Understanding and Appreciation of Evidence; and Trial Procedure.

ON SEPTEMBER 28, 2019 AT 10 A.M.

BY

Sidharth Luthra,
Senior Advocate,
Supreme Court of India.

ON

Relevancy and proof of hearsay evidence,
Principles of 'last seen together' theory,
Concept of circumstantial evidence.

ON OCTOBER 26, 2019 AT 10 A.M.

ORGANISED BY

Studio Nilima: Collaborative Network for Research and Capacity Building

To participate, kindly send us an email to info@studionilima.com with your name and contact number on/before August 25, 2019. Participation by registration on priority basis.